

Notice of Issuance of Uncertificated Shares

To: Mark Chadwick

From: Faithways Studio, Inc.

Date: August 6, 2026

This notice confirms that Faithways Studio, Inc. has issued 3,500,000 shares of common stock to you, in exchange for cash payment of $20.00, received and cleared August 3, 2026. These shares are uncertificated — no paper stock certificate has been or will be issued unless the board later determines otherwise — and your ownership is reflected in the corporation's share register.

Public benefit corporation disclosure (C.R.S. § 7-101-505). Faithways Studio, Inc. is a Colorado public benefit corporation. As a shareholder, you should know that the corporation's board of directors is required by law to manage the corporation in a manner that balances your pecuniary interest as a shareholder, the interests of those materially affected by the corporation's conduct, and the corporation's specific public benefit — presently, to create safe spaces to explore faith and the story of Jesus (Article III of the Articles of Incorporation). This means the board's duty is not limited to maximizing shareholder financial return alone. Shareholders of a public benefit corporation may, under Colorado law, have standing to bring or join a derivative action addressing the board's failure to pursue the corporation's stated public benefit or its balancing duty under C.R.S. § 7-101-506.
